Robert's grandson, Constant Elisha Watson Davis stated in his manuscript "The Davis Family", written in 1892, that Robert's mother, Jemima (Jefferson) Collins Davis was related to President Thomas Jefferson. This claim is later confirmed by the previously mentioned source "History of Logan County, WV", which was written four years later in in 1896.

Notes for THOMAS DAVIS:

Thomas Davis was born about 1755 in Augusta County, VA. He was a Revolutionary War veteran. He initially enlisted in the 7th VA Regiment on Dec. 28, 1776, serving under Captain Thomas Posey, as a replacement for his brother John who was unable to finish his term and was furloughed due to illness. After completing what remained of his brother's term, Thomas then reenlisted for three more years. His last date of service was Feb. 3, 1779. He married Nancy Hill and left Albemarle County, VA and later settled near Logan County, VA, near the Tug Fork of the Big Sandy River, which serves as a border in separating Eastern KY and Southwestern WV. On May 28, 1834, his heirs were allowed land bounty for services as a soldier in the Continental Line for three years. His warrant was issued in Logan County, VA and certified that Thomas had died intestate in 1825 in Logan County. Thomas' son Henry settled in present day Martin County, KY near a tributary of Wolf Creek, which later became known as Davis Branch.

Notes for WILLIAM DAVIS:

William Davis, Sr. was born either 1747 or 1756 in Augusta Co., VA. He was also a Revolutionary War veteran. He enlisted at the Chesterfield Court House in Virginia. After leaving Albemarle County, VA, he also later settled along the Tug Fork of the Big Sandy River. William had obtained considerable wealth and according to members of his family in TN, William and his wife did have slaves and they released them before the Civil War; however, the slaves wished to stay on the land. He married the widow Catherine Hensley of Russell Co., VA, whose maiden name is unknown. He later married Mary "Polly" (Runyon) Taylor in Floyd Co., KY on Feb. 11, 1819. When William applied for his pension on Sep. 17, 1832 in Logan County, VA, he stated he lived on the Kentucky side of the Logan County line but was nearest to the courthouse in Logan County, VA. He died either the 13th or 23rd of May, 1842. William's son John also settled in present day Martin County, KY near a tributary of Rockcastle Creek and also later became known as Davis Branch, sharing the same name as the homestead of his first cousin Henry; Consequently, there are two tributaries located in different parts of Martin County, both called Davis Branch. Even though William, Sr. did not have a son named William, he had a nephew named William, who was the son of his brother Thomas. In order to eliminate any confusion in identification, the elder William was known as William, Sr. and his nephew was known as William, Jr. According to the book "History of Logan County, WV", written in 1896, both William and his brother Thomas claimed to be first cousins to President Thomas Jefferson.

Notes for JOHN DAVIS, JR.:

John Davis, Jr. was born December 12, 1758 in Augusta Co., VA. He was also a Revolutionary War veteran. He enlisted in the 7th VA Regiment at the beginning of the year in 1776 at Botetourt County, VA. He served under Captain Thomas Posey. He initially served 10 months and became so ill, his brother Thomas came to visit him at Williamsburg. During his visit, Thomas agreed to replace his brother John until his health improved. Thomas not only finished out what remained of his brother's two year term, but he also reenlisted for three more years. After being furloughed, John regained his health and twelve months after his first enlistment was out, he reenlisted in Botetourt Co., during the winter, shortly before The Battle of Little York under Captain Smith, for three more years. Nine months later he was wounded at the Battle of York & received a discharge by Captain Lamb. During his second term he served under many generals including Washington and the French General Marquis De La Fayette. He married Mourning McGuffey in 1789 in VA. After marriage they moved to Sevier Co., TN. In 1798 he moved to KY in the area that later became Wayne County in 1801 and Clinton County in 1836. Shortly after arriving in KY, John contributed to the founding of the first and oldest Methodist Church in Clinton County by donating the land for it's use. The Church, initially called The Davis Society changed to The Davis Meeting House and eventually became the The Davis Chapel. John died September 30, 1841 in Clinton County, KY and is buried at the Davis Chapel Cemetery.

11. ABSOLEM⁵ DAVIS (JAMES⁴, JOHN³, ROBERT², NATHANIAL¹)⁷ was born Jun 03, 1797 in TN⁷, and died Abt. 1866 in Dade Co., GA⁷. He married JOSINA NICHOLS⁷ Abt. 1820 in Tennessee, daughter of DAVID NICHOLS and MARY NICHOLS⁷. She was born Abt. 1800 in Tn⁸, and died Abt. 1886 in Dade Co., GA⁹.

Notes for ABSOLEM DAVIS:

Absolem and Josina Nichols Davis

Absolem Davis, son of Methodist preacher, James Davis and his wife Priscilla Painter or Richardson , was born about 1797 in Tennessee. Absolem married Josina Sina Nichols, daughter of David and Mary Ann Nichols, about 1823 in White Co., or Marion Co., TN.

The Davis family paid taxes in White Co., TN in 1825 and in Marion Co. before 1836. In 1849 the family bought Lot 65 Section 10 in Dade Co. (This lot is now bisected by I 59 and is located about one half mile from the intersection of I 29 and I 59.) This is the story of a Absolem and Josina's family that had nothing to gain from the War Between the States and was decimated because of it. Three of their sons died because of their military service.

Absolem and Josina had four daughters and then had four sons: Mary Ann, Priscilla, Catherine, Aley, John, David Absolem, William, and Ephraim.

When the family moved to Dade from Marion their third daughter, Aley, had married Edward Page and had one son, John Absolem. Edward, born June 7, 1828 and died February 16, 1904, and Aley, born April 1828 and died November 14, 1903, are buried at Brown's Gap Cemetery. The Pages reared six children in Dade.

Absolem and Josina's eldest daughter, Mary Ann, was listed in the 1850 census and not in the 1860 census or any other documents. We assume that she died before 1860.

The second daughter, Priscilla, married a Mr. Hale between 1850 and 1860. Her husband died before 1860 leaving her with a daughter, Eliza Catherine. Catherine Hale married William Gober and died quite young leaving two little boys. William continued to live with his mother-in-law, Priscilla and she reared the Gober boys.

Their third daughter, Catherine, died a single woman February 2, 1870. She made a verbal will and the witnesses appeared in court to verify that they had heard her wishes. It was a requirement that all of her possible heirs be listed. This document gives much genealogical information regarding which of Catherine's brothers and sisters were alive in 1870 and the names of the children of the deceased siblings. The children of her deceased brothers, David and William, are mentioned, however there is no mention of any children for her brother, Ephraim.

John, the eldest son, born October 18, 1829, left Dade before 1860 with his mother's relatives, the Nichols families, for Franklin Co. ,AR and he never returned. He later married a cousin, Caroline Nichols and had one son, John Sterling Price Davis. John and Caroline reared several other children including to the orphans of his brother David. During the War Between the States John served in Co. I of the 35th AR Infantry. The family moved to the Indian Territory and later homesteaded in New Mexico. John died on December 13, 1909 and is buried in Francis Cemetery near Hess, OK.

David Absolem, my great grandfather, was born April 27, 1834 in Marion Co., TN. He married Mary Ann Prince, eldest daughter of Greenberry and Susannah Dykes Prince on April 18, 1853 in DeKalb Co., AL. He enlisted with his brothers, William and Ephraim, and the other Dade Co. men in Co. F of the 34th GA Infantry. While he was in the service his wife died of smallpox leaving two boys and a girl (my grandmother). David and his two brothers were captured at Vicksburgh, MS and were later paroled. The three brothers, contrary to their terms of parole, joined their regiment and were captured again. David was imprisoned in the infamous Camp Chase near Chicago, IL.

When he returned after the War he married Sarah Jane Moore, daughter of Thomas and Julia Ann Booth Moore on February 17, 1866. One daughter was born just a month before David died on May 24, 1867 from the tuberculosis contacted in prison, William, when recaptured, was sent to Camp Morton, IN. We know from Catherine Davis' will that he had died before 1870 and left three children. His wife may have been a daughter of John McCauley of Marion Co.

Ephraim, the youngest son, spent a wild youth. The court records of Dade are full of his arrests for fighting, assaults, carrying a weapon, etc. By 1860 he had married a woman named Celia and was living next door to his parents. Ephraim was also re-captured and died in Camp Douglas, IL on April 1, 1864 from smallpox and is buried in Oakwood Cemetery near Chicago.

Absolem died in early 1866 and his estate was probated on July 7 of that year. He left his farm and a reasonable estate for that time. There was much maneuvering in the courts regarding his farm and finally his daughters, Priscilla and Catherine, won. When Catherine died in 1870 she left her part of the farm to Priscilla. Priscilla lived there in the Egypt area until her death. Her grandson, Jesse Gober, continued to live on the farm until shortly before his death in 1959.

Josina, who had a family of eight near her in 1850 was left with only two daughters, Priscilla Hale and Aley Page, nearby. From the tax records we can determine that she died in 1886. The graves of Absolem, Josina, and each of their children, except Aley and John are unmarked. There were only 14 grand children that survived.

She married JAMES WILLIAM HUSKEY⁸⁰ 1880 in Chattooga Co., GA, son of JAMES/JOHN HUSKEY and SARAH DURHAM. He was born 1857 in AL, and died Jan 19, 1927.

Notes for SARAH ANN SYMANTHIA DAVIS:

In 1901, James and Sarah Huskey left Walker County/DeKalb County and moved north into Tennessee - to Monteagle in Grundy County. Their sons, Charles and Rufus stayed behind and followed later. Charles Huskey had married a girl named Baker and left her behind when he moved to Tennessee.

Research of a local newspaper in February 1901 tells of a serious smallpox outbreak in Walker County. This could very well be the reason James and Sarah left in that year. After James and Sarah's last child Pearly was born in about 1907, James left and was never heard from again.

Two of James and Sarah Huskey's children, Charlie and Rufus were both shot and killed in Harlan, Kentucky on separate occasions.

James died at the age of 70 and was buried somewhere in Mississippi according to his sister-in-law Minnie Huskey personal notebook.

Sarah Ann Davis Huskey died of cancer and is buried in Kentucky, probably around Harlan. Harlan is located just a few miles north east of Cumberland Gap (where Tennessee, Kentucky and Virginia merge).

After they moved back to Tennessee in 1901, the 1910 Grundy County census shows Sarah as head of household HH 127-127, living next door to William Levi Davis, her brother, who resides at HH 126-126. According to the census both state they and their parents were born in Tennessee instead of Georgia.
