APPENDIX

See JAMES BROWN, Pg 2

His name was JOHN G Brown - not James G Brown (see the 1850, 1860 censuses for a very clear name of John G Brown). He married Sarah "Sallie" (Moffitt) Johnson.

This couple moved to Decatur County, TN and are found there in the 1870 census along with Adam and Rachel Moffitt, Sarah's parents and Branson Jefferson Johnson, Sarah's son from her Johnson marriage. Johnson husband died of illness in Civil War.

Listed as a Brown with John G and Sarah is Martha [Johnson]-but she is listed as a Brown by census taker and two of John G & Sarah Brown children, including Isom Carroll Brown, my great grandfather.

John G and Sarah next moved to Ozark Co, MO with Isom and Robert Andrew Brown, their only two surviving children. They are there on 1880 census along with Branson Johnson. During their stay in Ozark Co, MO they bought land in Navarro County, TX (deed available). Sarah died in Navarro County, TX and is buried in White Cemetery, Mt Nebo, Navarro County, Texas.

John G Brown then married Mary Ellen (Hart) Bollman Sawyer. John and Mary Ellen had no children. I have their marriage record from Navarro County, TX and my grandmother's memory. My grandmother was the granddaughter of John G Brown (and remembered him well. She also remembered Sarah and I have a picture of her with both of them and their sons, shortly before Sarah died) and my grandmother married the son of Mary Ellen. So Mary Ellen was not only her mother in law but her step grandmother as well.

I also have the John G Brown estate records from Navarro County, TX which lists the Johnson children as inheritors of Sarah's part of the estate. The descendents of John and Sarah sued Mary Ellen for the estate.

There is clear proof that there's no possibility that Azaline Moffitt married John G Brown, son of Russel and Mary (Dykes) Brown, after Sarah died. I truly think this was an honest mistake (including John G's name shown as James G) by an early researcher that has continued to be carried down and I'd very much like to get it corrected. I suspect that Azaline/Asalian/Asalee married a Houston Brown and they are the couple that are living next door to John G and Sarah on the 1870 Decatur Co, TN census.
