Compendium of Local Biography 1898 - Published by George A. Ogle & Co. -
Chicago, IL

William Anderson Griswold, who is living at Wagon, Grundy County, Tennessee, is a pioneer miller of the county, and one of the most extensive land owners in the vicinity. He was born January 30, 1832, near Altamont, in what is know as Grundy County. His parents, Stephen M. and Sarah (Purdom) Griswold, were natives of, the former of Connecticut and the latter of North Carolina. Stephen M. Griswold grew to manhood in his native state, and first visited this part of Tennessee as a traveling salesman, handling clocks, etc. He settled here and turned his attention to farming and saw-milling, and became very prosperous, as he succeeded in accumulation large tracts of land in and around Altamont. He was very prominent in the local political affairs of the county before the way, and was County Court Clerk at that time. He was a Whig in his political views. He died in 1882 at the advanced age of eighty-four. He was married in Coffee County, Tennessee, to Miss Sarah Purdom, who come with her parents from her native state of Tennessee, when she was a child, and who died at Altamont. They were members in good standing of the Christian Church at which they were regular attendants. Stephen M. and Sarah (Purdom) Griswold were the parents of thirteen children, five of whom are now living and of whom we give the following: William A., of who this article is written: Mary, the wife of Joseph Sweeton, of Tracy City, Tennessee; Sophia Jane, widow of Peter Long, making her home in Rockwood, Tennessee; David, living in Georgia; George, Altamont, Grundy County, Tennessee; Wiley P., who died in Kentucky; S. V. who was a farmer and liveryman at McMinnville, one of the firm of Griswold and Houchen, who died in the latter place, and DeWitt, who was a soldier in the Confederate Army under Peter Turney, and died while in the service.

William A. Griswold received his education at the Altamont Academy, and at the age of twenty-two he devoted his attention to saw-milling. He followed that calling ever since, with great success, and by strict attention to business he has succeeded in amassing sufficient to insure him a comfortable income during his declining years. He moved from his place near Altamont, First District of Grundy County, some years ago. He is one of the prominent men of the district and one of its largest land owners. His holdings amount to some fifteen thousand acres of land including a fine valley farm, sawmill and planing mill, with all the machinery that enters into the manufacture of lumber. He is also the owner of a good gristmill. Mr. Griswold took an active part in the erection of the school house and church. On April 8, 1860, William Griswold was united in the holy bonds of matrimony with Miss Martha Jane Warren, daughter of John Warren. There have been twelve children born to bless this union, eleven of whom are living, viz.: James, a carpenter of Tracy City; Thomas, a farmer of Hubbard's Cove; Isaac, also a farmer of Hubbard's Cove; Norman, lives on Collins river in Grundy County; David makes his home near his father; and is the postmaster at Wagon, Grundy County; George resides near the parental home; Charlie, in Coffee County; Claude, Vanie and Lily (the latter twins), at home, and Leonard, who died at the age of sixteen. Mrs. Griswold died on September 3, 1897, at the age of sixty-three. Mr. Griswold is a member in good standing of the Christian Church, as was respected and lamented wife. Politically he affiliates with the Democratic Party. He is a man of the strictest integrity, honorable and upright in all his dealings with his fellow citizens, and highly respected for his many sterling traits of character.
