JAMES GABRIEL'S GRANDDAUGHTER MONA (HARGIS)-----SAYS

THAT JAMES SAID "THERE WERE FIVE BROTHERS THAT CAME FROM HOLLAND" 11/28/94

JAMES WAS EIGHT YEARS OLD WHEN THE CIVIL WAR STARTED. ONE OF THE STORIES HE TOLD HIS GRANDCHILDREN WAS THAT HIS FATHER, BILL, WAS ALLOWED TO COME HOME ON LEAVE WHILE HIS MOTHER, KISIAH, WAS VERY ILL WITH TUBERCULOSIS. THE YANKEES CAME TO THE HOUSE AND SAW BILL'S COAT HANGING ON A HOOK. THE YANKEES DEMANDED TO KNOW WHERE BILL WAS, BUT THE OLDEST DAUGHTER POLLY, RACED TO THE BACK FIELD WHERE THEY WERE MAKING SORGHUM AND WARNED HER FATHER AND BILL WAS ABLE TO HIDE FROM THE YANKEES.

IN THEIR ANGER, THEY RAIDED THE SMOKEHOUSE AND TOOK THE FAMILY'S MEAT.

William Hargis was born in Fairfax Co. Virginia, July 16, 1760.

Virginia's original constitution adopted in 1776.

July 4th 1776, Thomas Jefferson wrote Declaration of Independence.

While a resident of Caswell Co., North Carolina, he was called to serve in the Army; drew $26.00 for eight months service as a private and $30.00 for three months as an ensign, was in the battle of Guilford (Mar. 15, 1781 consisted of 4,4004 men)

, and had a brother, Captain Shadrach Hargis, in the Revolutionary War. His discharge signed by "Efrn Washington, B Major at camp McLainess Bluff, Nov. 19, 1781, states; "this may certify that William Hargis, ensign in Capt. Moore's Co. has served three months and is hereby discharged." He lived in Caswell Co., N.C. when called into the service.

While living with his father in Caswell County, North Carolina, William Hargis volunteered, was commissioned an ensign and served four tours as such officer in the North Carolina Troops, as follows, from Nov. 1778, to Apr. 10, 1779, under Adjutant Samuel Johnson, Captain William White, Colonels, YOUNG, Yancy and James Sanders; three months, his services ending June 09, 1780 (The War of the Revolution five years old), in Captain Adam Sanders Company - N.C. MILITIA, Colonel Hugh Trinning's Regiment, for some time in 1781, in Captain Shadrach Hargis (soldier's oldest brother) Co., William left the service a few days after the battle, having served three months, from Aug. 19, 1781 to Nov. 19, 1781 in Captain Moore's Company.

William married September 12, 1782 to Elizabeth Jay. She was born on April 22, 1766 in Va.

Philadelphia convention held on the second Sunday of May 1787, The United States numbered thirteen states and had fewer than four million people.

June 25, 1788 Virginia achieves statehood (10th state).

The people of Kentucky demanded independence from Virginia, and the people of Tennessee set up a separate state from North Carolina.

Nov. 1789 North Carolina approves the constitution, George Washington elected president (1789-1797).

Constitution of The United States signed in 1791.

After the Revolution, he lived in Caswell County, North Carolina for about twenty years, then moved to Rutherford county North Carolina, that state thence to Knox County, Tennessee and lived there about twenty two years, thence to White County, Tennessee.

Age 72 -1832 pension list - white co.,tn.

He was allowed pension on his application executed April 10, 1833, while residing in said White County (at age seventy two), about fourteen miles from Sparta, where he resided for about twenty-two to twenty-five years. He had a record of his age in his Bible which was at his house "fourteen miles from this place" (Sparta, Tn., when his deposition for pension was taken.)

William Hargis died March 11, 1836, in White County Tennessee. He is buried on the East side of the Calfkiller River on a farm owned by the heirs of James H. Johnson. The daughters of the American Revolution have erected a monument to his grave. Williams wife Elizabeth, was allowed pension on her application executed April 11, 1838, while residing in White County, Tennessee.

William Hargis Will dated 7 August 1835. Wife Elizabeth Hargis, all my land and household furniture...and to the estate coming from James Jay, her father, North Carolina person county... to Washington F. Hargis at his mothers death...
