

from GCHS
website

Woody Hassler

Saturday, 2/16/08, 11:06 AM

Greetings from an old Grundy County-an. My name is Woody Hassler and I lived in Tracy City from 1951 to 1955. Daddy (Louis Carlton Hassler, AKA "Kitty") found Mama, a widow, and me, a three-year-old kid, in Chattanooga, and he was kind enough to bring us home with him to Tracy. Daddy and Granddaddy (Louis Edward Hassler, a Swiss immigrant) owned and operated the Hassler Dry Goods store in Tracy for many years. Although I was just a little kid while I lived there and I couldn't roam far on my own, I have many pleasant memories of Tracy and the people there and in other nearby towns. Bertha Hassler was my great aunt, Alva Lee Hassler was an aunt by marriage (and the Postmistress in Monteagle for about 50 years), and Freddy Baggenstoss (his family had a big bakery) was my best buddy in Tracy. I just thought I'd drop in here and tell y'all "Hey." Woody Hassler

From: I have lived in Tallahassee, Fla. since 1969.

Email: flagacracker@gmail.com

From: Janelle Taylor
To: John Campbell; Hope Baggenstoss; Anna & Katie Goforth; Mona Moreland; Jim Hamby; Oliver Jervis; Anna Mary Parker; Bob & Jane Douglas; Lucille Scissom; Jackie Partin; Inez Winton; Tracy City Public Library; Arlene Bean; Sue Scott; Ron Crabtree; Ralph & Bonnie; Ralph Thompson; Bettye Sherwood; Catherine Flury
Date: 2/20/2008 10:24:15 PM
Subject: Do any of you know Woody?

from GCHS
website

Woody
Hassler

Saturday, 2/16/08, 11:06 AM

Greetings from an old Grundy County-an. My name is Woody Hassler and I lived in Tracy City from 1951 to 1955. Daddy (Louis Carlton Hassler, AKA "Kitty") found Mama, a widow, and me, a three-year-old kid, in Chattanooga, and he was kind enough to bring us home with him to Tracy. Daddy and Granddaddy (Louis Edward Hassler, a Swiss immigrant) owned and operated the Hassler Dry Goods store in Tracy for many years. Although I was just a little kid while I lived there and I couldn't roam far on my own, I have many pleasant memories of Tracy and the people there and in other nearby towns. Bertha Hassler was my great aunt, Alva Lee Hassler was an aunt by marriage (and the Postmistress in Monteagle for about 50 years), and Freddy Baggenstoss (his family had a big bakery) was my best buddy in Tracy. I just thought I'd drop in here and tell y'all "Hey." Woody Hassler

From: I have lived in Tallahassee, Fla. since 1969.
Email: flagacracker@gmail.com