JKP1873c-01A Anna Maria Benkert, 1873c

Anna Maria Benkert, mother of Mrs John Kunz (Marie Magdalena Stamm), born April 15, 1855 in Aarberg, Canton Bern, Switzerland and died in Milwaukee, Wisconsin November 4, 1905. This picture was taken when she was about 18 years of age.

JKP1878-01A Hans Jacob Stamm, 1878

Hans Jacob Stamm, father of Mrs John Kunz (Marie Magdalena Stamm), born August 3, 1848 in Schleithem, Canton Schaffhausen, Switzerland. Mrs John Kunz wrote on this picture, “My father Jacob Stamm 1878.” The picture was taken prior to his marriage to Anna Maria Benkert in 1879 and their immigration to the United States in 1880. Their marriage license identifies his occupation as helmsman; he was probably a tourist steam boat captain on one of the Swiss lakes. This picture shows him in the uniform of that occupation.

JKP1878-01C

JKP 1878-01C This identification of this picture of Hans Jacob Stamm is from the back of another copy of this same portrait provided by Jo Ann Stamm

JKP1885c-01A Hans Jacob Stamm, 1885c

This studio portrait of Hans Jacob Stamm was made in about 1885 after he immigrated to America in 1880 and was living in New York City with his wife and children. He was killed in New York City in 1895. The cap he is wearing may be a drayman cap of his occupation at that time.

This is a copy of a picture postcard of the road from Bern to Reichenbach in the 1890s. On the back of the original is written “The road I used to walk from Bern to Reichenbach 1896-97-98 Marie Stamm-Kunz” This is probably the road she walked to school while living with her aunt in Switzerland.

JKP1897-01B Mrs John Kunz wrote, " The road I used to walk from Bern to Reichenbach 1896-97-98 Marie Stamm-Kunz"

JKP1898-01A John Kunz in Hohenwald 1898

John Kunz made significant contributions to the development of the Swiss colony of Hohenwald; he helped survey the town and farm lots, developed one of the early farms, served as the secretary of the Swiss Pioneer Union (the founding corporation of the colony), wrote promotional articles in the colony newspaper (“The Swiss-American Pioneer”), served as the town’s first postmaster and participated in community projects.

JKP1896-01B Mrs John Kunz wrote, “Helped survey Swiss colony, Hohenwaldd, Postmaster, Clerk in Mr Marbet General Store, John Kunz 1898.”

JKP1898c-02A Marie Magdalena Stamm, 1898c

Marie Magdalena Stamm, daughter of Hans Jacob Stamm and Anna Maria Benkert-Stamm, was born September 29, 1880 in Hottingen, Switzerland. She immigrated to America with her mother and father when she was seven weeks old. After her father was killed in New York City in 1895, she was sent to live with an Aunt in Switzerland where she attended finishing school and learned dressmaking. This picture was probably taken about 1898 while she was living with her Aunt in Switzerland.

JKP1898c-03A John (Johannes) Kunz, Sr., 1898c

John (Johannes) Kunz, Sr. (Father of John Kunz) was born August 15, 1843 Lyssach, Switzerland, married Anna Wasmer, was the father of six children, John, Fredrick, Anna, Elisa, Rudolph and Marie, and died July 12, 1927

JKP1911-01A John Kunz and Brother Rudolph, 1911

This is a picture postcard of John Kunz and Brother Rudolph when John visited Rudy in Cheyenne, Wyoming in 1911

JKP1911-01B Translated from the back of the picture postcard:

“Cheyenne, Wyoming August 1911, Find you here brother Rudy and my self’s picture we had taken in Omaha. I recognized him right away and he also said he thought right away it was me when he saw me. He gave me a good photo of himself which I will bring home with me. I am enjoying the trip fine although it is somewhat tiresome to ride so long in one stretch. Hope you are well and the children also. John”
