

THE IDA MARTHA JOHNSON TRAVIS (OLDEST JOHNSON CHILD)

AND MILES FRANKLIN TRAVIS FAMILY

THE JAMES MILES JOHNSON FAMILY

INTRODUCTION

James Miles Johnson was born January 17, 1840, in London, England. He immigrated to the United States with his parents, James and Mary Allen Johnson. I don't know if James had brothers or sisters, but they must have traveled with aunts, uncles and cousins as many births and deaths of Johnson family members were recorded in the Johnson Family Bible.

I am not certain what year they arrived here, but it was prior to the Civil War which began in 1861. When the Civil War began, even though the Johnsons had settled in the south, James Miles Johnson chose to fight with the North, or Union Army. He was a cannoner in General Forrest's Cavalry Unit. He fought in the Battle of Shiloh, received a saber cut to the head, was taken prisoner and spent the remainder of the war in Rock Island Prison.

After the end of the war, James Miles Johnson met and fell in love with Amanda Isabella Nancy Swain, the daughter of a Virginia farmer, ~~James~~<sup>Edwin</sup> Swain. After their marriage, they lived in Sewanee, Tennessee, for a period of time. It is known that Amanda gave birth to eight children but only four lived to reach adulthood. Three children to survive to adulthood were born in Sewanee, Tennessee:

- 1) Ida Martha (my grandmother), born February 7, 1869, Sewanee, Tennessee
- 2) George Henry, born August 18, 1872, Sewanee, Tennessee
- 3) Clara Lily, born November 26, 1875, Sewanee, Tennessee

The family moved to Tracy City where the only other child to survive to adulthood was born:

- 4) Minnie Louise, birth date unknown, Tracy City, Tennessee

The history and descendants of these four children unfold on the following pages.

James Miles Johnson died on September 21, 1905, in Tracy City, Tennessee, and is buried there.

Amanda Isabella Nancy Swain Johnson was born July 8, 1845, in Scottsville, Kentucky, and died at the home of her daughter, Martha Ida Johnson Travis, in Birmingham, Alabama (it is believed sometime in 1922 or 1923). She was returned to Tracy City, Tennessee, and is buried with her husband.

When James died, the Johnson Family Bible was inherited by George Henry Johnson. Years later some of the information was used by his son for his thesis when he was studying to be a Baptist minister. Since the Bible was later destroyed in a home fire, the names used in the thesis are the only record left. The names appear on the last page of this introduction; if anyone has any information about any of these individuals, I would be most grateful to have it.

The pages following contain the history of the four children born to James and Amanda who survived to adulthood: (1) Martha Ida Johnson, (2) George Henry Johnson, (3) Clara Lily Johnson, and (4) Minnie Louise Johnson. This history has been prepared to the best of my knowledge. However, if anyone has any further information available, I would very much appreciate having to add to this family history.

Thank you.

The material noted below is what was used by George Johnson's son, James, to prepared his thesis:

1. Amanda Isabella Nancy Swain Johnson
Born July 8, 1845, Scottsville, Kentucky
Died 1923 Birmingham, Alabama
Buried Tracy City, Tennessee
2. Mary S. Johnson
Born February 15, 1869, Jeffersonville, Indiana
Died December 27, 1869, Winchester, Tennessee
3. Mattie I. Johnson
Born February 7, 1871, Sewanee, Tennessee
4. Charly W. Johnson
Died October 19, 1874, Sewanee, Tennessee
5. Carrie D. Johnson
Died December 28, 1879 Tracy City, Tennessee
6. James Carl Johnson
Died December 28, 1886, Tracy City Tennessee
7. Lula V. Johnson
Died February 12, Liford, Maryland

George Henry Johnson was a house painter and wallpaper hanger. His first wife died in TRACY CITY IN childbirth and her sister went to care for the child. Eventually, they married, AND ALSO HAD A DAUGHTER. GEORGE LATER MARRIED FOR THE THIRD TIME AND HAD A SON WHO BECAME A BAPTIST MINISTER.

Clara Lily was a school teacher. She married James Greenwood Abernathy, a pharmacist and part owner of the Tracy City Pharmacy.

Ida Martha married Miles Franklin Travis, a Singer sewing machine salesman and repairman.

These are just some interesting facts about the children that you won't find in the ongoing histories.

CORRECTIONS AND ADDITIONS TO ORIGINAL INFORMATION ON JOHNSON FAMILY HISTORIES

① INTRODUCTION TO JOHNSON

1. PAGE 1

THE JOHNSON FAMILY IMMIGRATED TO AMERICA IN 1849 WHEN JAMES WAS 9 YEARS OLD

2. JAMES AND AMANDA (CALLED NANNIE BY HER FAMILY) WERE MARRIED OCTOBER 14, 1867 IN FRANKLIN COUNTY, TENNESSEE.

3. 1900 GRUNDY COUNTY CENSUS LISTS HIM AS A PAINTER MAY HAVE BEEN A FAMILY TRADE BECAUSE 1870 FRANKLIN COUNTY CENSUS LISTS HIM AND FRED JOHNSON (BORN IN AFRICA BUT WHITE) AS PAINTERS LIVING WITH JOSIAH SWAIN. JAMES AND AMANDA (NANNIE AS HE WAS LISTED) WERE MARRIED

GEORGE, JAMES JOHNSON'S SON MAYBE FRED WAS JAMES BROTHER. FRED MARRIED AMANDA'S ALSO PAINTER SISTER SIDNEY MARCH 4, 1871 FRANKLIN COUNTY.

4. THE 1870 FRANKLIN COUNTY CENSUS LISTS JOSIAH SWAIN, BORN VIRGINIA, AND 8 CHILDREN OF HIS OWN (ALL GIRLS BUT 1) ALONG WITH THE HUSBANDS OF TWO DAUGHTERS AND FRED JOHNSON.

I THOUGHT 5. THE 1860 FRANKLIN COUNTY CENSUS LISTS JOSIAH SWAIN THEN AMANDA'S FATHER WAS A FARMER AS A SHOEMAKER WITH WIFE MARY. BORN IN VIRGINIA 50, AND 8 DAUGHTERS. SO I GUESS THE 18 YEAR OLD WILLIAM SWAIN LISTED IN 1870 CENSUS WAS NOT A SON BUT A RELATIVE. LISTED AS SHOEMAKER ASSISTANT.
