Bride's Home Scene of Miss Kilgore's Vow Exchange with Robert A. Hazlett

In a quiet ceremony Saturday evening, July 2, in the home of the bride, Miss Delores Jean Kilgore exchanged vows with Robert A. Hazlett.

The bride is a daughter of Edward Kilgore, High St., Freeport. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Hazlett, 3rd St., Freeport.

The double-ring ceremony was performed at 7 by the Rev. David S. Oyler, pastor of the bridegroom, in the presence of the immediate families and close friends.

Attending the bride were her sister, Miss Allie Kilgore, and her cousin, Mrs. Roger Wayland of Natrona Heights.

The bride selected a street-length dress of white nylon, while her sister wore a similar type gown in a pale blue shade. Mrs. Wayland appeared in a pink silk dress.

For "something borrowed," the bride carried a white family Bible topped with a white orchid from which cascaded lily of the valley streamers. She wore as her only jewelry a pearl necklace, a gift of the bridegroom.

The attendants carried bouquets of carnations in contrasting shades. Pink carnation corsages were presented to Mrs. Joseph Kilgore, aunt of the bride with whom she has resided and to the mother of the bridegroom.

Jack Hazlett was his brother's best man while an older brother, William B. Hazlett, Jr., ushered.

A reception was held in the Kilgore home after the ceremony. When the couple left for a short trip, the new Mrs. Hazlett was wearing a blue cotton ensemble with white accessories.

The newlyweds will reside with Mr. Hazlett's parents, Mrs. Hazlett, who was graduated from Freeport Area Joint High School in 1933, is employed by the General Press Company, Tarantum. Mrs. Hazlett also is a Freeport graduate, served four years in the Air Force, over half of which was spent in England. He received his discharge last fall, and is now employed by Allegheny Ludlum Steel Corp. in Brackenridge. The bride was honored at a miscellaneous shower given by her sister recently in her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Hazlett
(Delores Jean Kilgore)
