Notes for Alfred (Alford) McBee:

Alfred, age 1, was living with his parents and older siblings in District 12 of Grundy County during the 1900 census.

When the 1910 census was taken, he, age 11, was living in the Battle Creek area of Marion County with the John Rossler family.

Alfred's WWI Draft Registration Card which was filled out when he was 20 years old stated he was native born, working in Tatesville, Grundy Co., TN as a miner, his nearest relative was James McBee who lived in North Chattanooga, Hamilton Co., TN, and he was of medium height and built with blue eyes and black hair.

At the time of the 1920 Grundy County census, Alfred, age 21, and Delia, called Dehlia and 15 years old, were living in District 2 where he was working as a coal miner. They had a daughter, Dorothy K., age 4 months. They were living next door to Delia's parents. This is the only census that states Alfred was born in Alabama. All the others state he was born in Tennessee.

When the 1930 Grundy County census was taken, Alfred, called Alf and listed as 27, and Delie, listed as 25, were living in Palmer where he was working as a coal miner. They had 2 daughters, Dorothy age 10 and Doris age 6. Alfred's brother, Henry V. McBee, was living next door with his family. Alfred was working as a carpenter for the coal company.

Alfred was also called Alf and Alford. His tombstone list his name as Alford.

Alfred's obit reads: "Alfred McBee, 70, died at an early hour Thursday, Nov. 20, at his home in Laager, after an illness of several months. He was a retired miner and for the past few years had operated a restaurant on Highway 108 in Laager. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James McBee of Tracy City. His survivors include his wife, Dealie Parson McBee; two daughters Mrs. Dorothy Geary and Mrs. Doris Burnett, all of Laager, two sons, Alvin Wade McBee of Palmer and James McBee of Chattanooga; and one sister, Mrs. Charity Pell of Chattanooga. Funeral services were conducted at the Laager Methodist Church Saturday at 2 p.m. with Bailey Brooks and the Rev. Joe B. Shrum officiating. Burial was in Fall Creek Cemetery. Foster and Son Funeral Home of Tracy City was in charge of arrangements."

Alfred's death certificate states his date of death was Nov. 20, 1969 at his residence in Grundy County.

The SSDI list Alfred's last residence as Manchester, Coffee Co., TN. His birthdate was listed as March 15, 1899.
