Dec. 24th. 1913

I, Anna Pybas, being of sound mind and body write this as my last will.
I desire, in case of ^{my} death, that, my nephew Dudley Glass, who now resides in Atlanta, Ga, shall have all property both real and personal of which I may die possessed. I desire and direct that said Dudley Glass shall be relieved of all bond in settling said estate and I herby give his power of Attorney to sell or otherwise avail himself of my full interest in all property of which I am now possessed.
