HANS/JOHANN/JOHN SCHILD

That is the name I gave to my great great grandfather while I was researching the Brienz, Bern Canton Protestant Reform Church records for my Schild relatives.

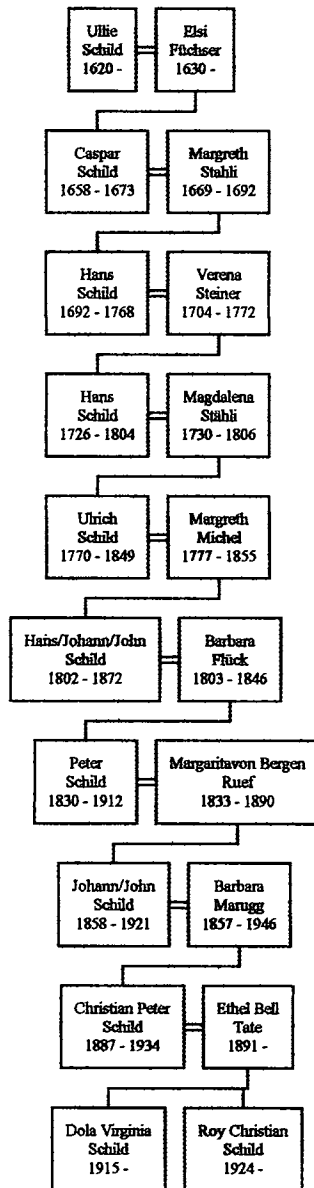

Hans Schild was Christened on February 28, 1802 in Brienz, Bern Canton, Switzerland. The city of Brienz and surrounding communities were heavily populated by Schilt /Schild families. Switzerland had the church-state form of government and a required permanent residence, which was established centuries earlier. Thus regardless of where Hans went to work, his permanent residence was in Brienz and births, marriages, and deaths were to be recorded in the Brienz church. The Brienz church was also responsible for the records of adjoining communities, Brienzweiler, Oberried by Brienzensee, and Schwanden.

Hans married Barbara Flük from Schwanden(neighboring village) on April 23 1824 . She was the daughter of Peter Flük and Barbara Schild. Even though married, Barbara retained her own family name until death, a custom in Switzerland. In tracing Hans' relatives back into the 17th Century, I did not find any relationship with the Barbara Schild of Schwanden. Hans was a Schuster(Shoemaker, Cobbler). Hans and Barbara's first child was born on August 25, 1825, Christened on the 28th. The child's grandmother and mother were named Barbara thus, the child also became a Barbara. Barbara married Melchior Gertsch from Lüttschenthal on October 13, 1843 and became a permanent resident in Lüttschenthal with her husband. Hans and Barbara's second child was born on February 19, 1828, Christened on the 24th. He was Christened as Johann. Here the Church records added another event: The record read, Johann Schild, Ullrich's son and Barbara Flük from Schwanden, married on April 23, 1824 had a son named Johann, Christened on April 24, 1828 and died July 23, 1856. This also announced that Hans Schild had changed his name to Johann. Other children born were Peter, November 14, 1830. Caspar born October 24 , 1830 and Margaritha born October 4, 1842.

Barbara Flük died January 12, 1846, son Johan died July 23, 1856, Margaritha married Andreas Thöni on May 24 1861. In 1869 Peter and Caspar and their families decided to move to America and to the Swiss Colony being advertised in Switzerland. Caspar and family departed Switzerland on March 18, 1869, arriving in New York April 8, 1869 Peter and family arrived in New York on June 15, 1869. Both families finally realized that the Swiss Colony was nothing but virgin forest and they had to cut trees to build a temporary shelter till they could build a cabin and clear land to farm. The winter of 1869/1870 was a very rough one for the settlers. They arrived too late to clear land and plant a crop for 1869, thus they had no food for the winter. I suspect that by spring there were fewer animals in the woods around the Swiss Colony. Early in May/June 1870, Hans/Johann/John (His name became John when he processed thru Immigration in New York) arrived in the Swiss Colony to live with his son Peter.

The settlers operated the Colony the same as a town in Switzerland and the church kept the Christenings, Marriages, and Death records. The page recording the deaths is missing and I could not determine when Hans/Johann/John died. It is assumed that since he was buried on his son's farm that he died before the Swiss Colony Cemetery was established and may have been the first death of the settlers. The first recorded death in the cemetery was in November 1873. Hans/Johan/John was buried on his sons' yard and the grave was marked by a stone inscribed with the word "GROSSVATER", meaning GRANDFATHER. The farm was maintained by his descendants until the death of his great grand daughter(Fannie Schild) in 1970. More recently, the idle farm land has been developed into a housing area and the location of Hans/Johan/John's grave has been lost.

Descendants of Ulli Schilt

Generation No. 1

1. ULLI<sup>1</sup> SCHILT was born Abt. 1620 in Brienz, Bern, Switzerland, and died Bef. April 1673 in Brienz, Bern, Switzerland. He married ELSI FÜCHSER Abt. 1650. She was born Abt. 1630, and died September 26, 1692 in Brienz, Bern, Switzerland.

Notes for ULLI SCHILT:

Ulli Schilt was born Abt. 1620 in Brienz, Bern Canton, Switzerland and died Bef. April 1673 in Brienz, Bern Switzerland. He married Elsi Fuchser. She was born about 1630 and died September 26, 1692 in Brienz, Bern, Switzerland. The Church Records for 1627 thru 1664 are missing and I was unable to locate the parents of Ullie/Ulrich Schilt. There are four possible couples of which one could be the parents of Ulli/Ulrich:

1. Caspar Schilt and Margret Schilt, son Ulrich Christened April 27, 1617.
2. Melcher Schilt and Anna Cherli, son Ulrich Christened January 23, 1620.
3. Hans Schilt and Gerti Muschi, son Ulrich Christened April 30, 1620.
4. Melcher Schilt and Anne Zobrist, son Ulrich christened January 28, 1621.

On 13, 4.1673 were cited by the court of the church Ulli Schilt's late sons Melcher and Caspar because they did not go to school of the religion [Chorgerichtsmanual Brienz]. This indicates that Ulli died before April 1673.
