Notes for KATHERINE SHRUM:

Katherin Shrum born in Marion County, Tennessee about 1831. She was the daughter of Moses Shrum. She never married. The date of her death was unknown. Records show that she was of considerable wealth of that day. Records in the Marion County Courthouse have recorded numbers of notes of various property as collateral for borrowed money. Katherine Shrum raised hogs and cattle. She lived to be a very old age. She was known as Aunt Kath Shrum. Katherine was noted for her bravery. In those days the Cumberland Mountains were noted to have had bear, tiger, (must mean Mountain Lions) and deer. The early settlers lived by hunting these deer and bear. Family legend holds that this Katherine Shrum raised hogs by the thousands in the mountains. There the hogs would sleep under the cliffs. One cold snowy winter night Aunt Kath heard her pigs squealing. She went under these cliffs where she felt in the dark until she found the bear that was killing her pigs. She stabbed it with a sticking knife. She then got some men the next day to track down the bear by the trail of the blood it left and capture it. [My Family File Copy 3.FBK.FTW]

Susan signed a deed as Elizabeth, but she was know by all as Aunt Susan Rust. Her youngest daughter, Jeannie Adams of Tracy City, Tenn. is now 76 years old. 7. JOHN⁴ SHRUM (MOSES³, HENRY², NICHOLAS¹) was born 1839 in Marion County, TN. He married JANE JOHNSON.

Notes for JOHN SHRUM:

John Shrum, son of Moses Shrum, son of Henry Shrum, son of Nicholas Shrum, pioneer to North Carolina. Born in Marion County, Tennessee. John Shrum, was one of the first settlers of Marion County, Tenn. Since the Court House burned in Marion County, we could not go back any further than 1855, except to the same land grant to Moses J. Shrum. His name appears many times on deeds and notes. John Shrum owned large acreage of land in the Grundy and Marion counties. Records show that he sold a boundary of land known as the Johns Ridge in the Oak Grove community (which was named after him) for $200.00. There was 200 acres of land. He also at one time owned what is know as Pryor Ridge. The Tennessee Consolidated Coal Company mined coal from these lands for years. The Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis R. R. Company laid tracks to haul the coal from this land.

John Shrum was a soldier in the Southern Army of the Civil War. My father told me that his father (John Shrum) had been on Lookout Mountain when General Grant moved his forces around Moccasin Bend into Chattanooga. He had looked below at the valley which looked blue with Yankee soldiers. He said that he was barefoot, hungry, and almost frozen. He had thought he was in the wrong army, but this must have changed his mind. He was a republican in his politics. He was against slavery, he was against low tariffs on imports and high tariffs on exports. He was not a religious man until he was very old. He was converted to Christianity and was baptized. John Shrum had been confused about how to be baptized. He and his daughter Mary read the account of the baptism of Jesus and then got a North Methodist Minister to pour the water on him for baptism. John Shrum well known in his era. He also had the largest family. The greater part of descendants are from him.

Notes for MOSES J SHRUM:

Information from 1900 Grundy County Census

Moses J. Shrum, born in Marion County, Tenn. He was the son of Moses Shrum, son of Henry Shrum, son of Nicholas Shrum, pioneer to North Carolina. He was one of the first settlers of Marion County, Tenn. due to the Court House of Marion County burning down and destroying the records, we could not find any records further than 1855. Moses J. Shrum obtained a land grant of one thousand and five hundred acres of land on the north side of Marion County, now known as Sequatchie Mountain. These lands are known by land marks such as Foster Falls, north of this point is Johns Ridge (named after John Shrum, brother of Moses J. Shrum, further north is Pryor Ridge. Including Engin Gulf, mill creek, Little and Big Fork. All this land at one time were rich with coal that was mined for years. This territory known as the Shrum Grant. Moses J. Shrum's family did not grow in numbers as his brother John's did. He had two sons and one daughter. Moses Shrum was a mountaineer farmer. His politics was democrat. He fought in the Southern Army of the Civil war. He was not a religious man as we know of. However, a great many of his descendant are Methodists. Moses' son Elijah Shrum, served a High Sheriff of Grundy County, Tenn. for four terms. Some of his great grandsons are still in active politics in Grundy County, Tenn. His death was due to old age. He died April 18 1922 at the age of 89. He is buried in the Oak Grove cemetery near the Marion County line.

The most of Moses J. Shrum's family stayed close to the two counties, Grundy and Marion, except Henry Shrum. Henry lived in Grundy County a number of years and then went west to Arkansas and California Most of his family still live in California today.

From this family is the most religious of any of this generation. Francis Marion Shrum was an ordained minister in the Congregation Methodist Church. John Lawrence Shrum is a local minister. James Roy Shrum is an ordained minister of the Congregational Methodist Church. Stanley Shrum is an ordained minister of the Congregational Methodist Church. Willie shrum and Lawrence Kenneth Shrum (Grandsons) both are local Methodist ministers. Most are Methodist with the exception of one family. Oscar Shrum is a member of the Church of Christ or at least that is where he attends church.

It seems that the offspring of this family lean more to the business type of occupation instead of farm or public works. Lawrence Shrum has run a business for some 30 years. James Roy Shrum has been in business for 5 years. He has 3 sons in business. This generation also seems to have artistic talent. Five of the grandsons and 3 granddaughters have real art talent. Two grandsons are studying art in college. Donnie Layne in New York and Ronnie Layne in Tennessee. James Roy Shrum, Jr., owns and operates a furniture store known as James Furniture & Appliance. James Roy Shrum, Sr. owns and operates a furniture store known as Shrum's Furniture & Appliance in Chattanooga, Tenn.

She was one of 10 children. A pioneer in the real estate industry, Isabel began her career in 1959, becoming one of the first female members of the Chattanooga Board of Realtors in 1960. She began Langley Realty along with her husband Hiram in 1961 and successfully operated the company for more than 30 years. Recognizing the need for women to take leadership roles in what was then a predominantly male profession, Isabel was instrumental in forming the local Women's Council of Realtors in 1966, serving as vice-president and later as president of the local chapter. In 1973 she was appointed president and governor for the state chapter of the Women's Council of Realtors, where she traveled extensively throughout the State, implementing educational programs for the advancement of women in the real estate industry. She was named Women's Council Woman of the Year in 1983. Isabel's service to the local Chattanooga Board of Realtors was extensive, having served in numerous leadership roles on both the local and state level. She was named Realtor of the year in 1975. A tireless worker and fierce fundraiser, Isabel's community service included Greater Chattanooga Chamber of Commerce, where she served as an ambassador, Kosmos Women's Club, Pro-re-Bona Nursery and Daycare to benefit underprivileged working mothers, and the foundation of the Cumberland Youth Foundation in 1957. In 1985 Isabel's love for children led her to join the Siskin Phonathon, an annual event to benefit the Siskin Foundation and Siskin Foundation and Siskin Pre-School, where she continued as co-chair until 2001. Isabel was the first woman appointed to the CARTA Board in 1980, where she served for nearly twenty. She was honored at the dedication of the CARTA parking facility, where her picture hangs today. Survivors include her husband Hiram Langley of Chattanooga; daughter Priscilla Woods of Atlanta; sons and daughter-in-laws Hiram G (Chip) Langley III and wife Betty Anne, Mile Langley and wife Beverly of Chattanooga; sister Betty Sue Patton of Knoxville, and Edna Robinson; brother, Mart Meeks of Gruetli-Laager; seven grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.
