TRACING THE DESCENDENTS OF JOHN HENRY SITZ
SO THAT GENERATIONS TO COME WILL HAVE THEM

Although a genealogy research is never completed, I could never have compiled this booklet without the contributions of many, many people. Relatives from far and near answered letters and calls with detail about their parents, grandparents, children, grandchildren, aunts, uncles and cousins. I truly appreciate the cooperation and thoughtfulness that the family has shown through the research process. They did the front-line information gathering. I organized their findings. Many photos which I had never seen before were willingly sent to me for this compilation. Let me especially thank the following:

WHERE THEY CAME FROM

The SEITZ family is German in origin, but has, for the most part, come to be identified with that group of early Americans known as the "Pennsylvania Dutch". The early, American settlers coined this term and they really meant to say "Deutsch", meaning German. They applied this name to those Swiss, Germans and even French Huguenots (who had fled a generation or so earlier, to the Palatinate) who arrived here in the 1700's and settled in a certain small area roughly defined as south-central and eastern Pennsylvania. In the late 1700's they began to migrate in large numbers into the Shenandoah Valley area of Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia and into certain counties of North Carolina. At the turn of the century, when land tracts were opened up in Georgia and Ohio and Missouri, they turned to those areas. The mass Palatine immigration to America in the 18th century has been called the greatest mass movement of a people since the Exodus. Around the capitol dome at Harrisburg are William Penn's prophetic words, "My God will make it the seed of a nation".

A LIST OF GERMANS FROM THE PALATINATE WHO ARRIVED IN AMERICA

The Pennsylvania German Pioneers were listed in three volumes and were the most accurate and complete immigration records on the "Pennsylvania Dutch". Volume 3 contains the signature of the immigrants. Included in the list were; Johann Hendrich Seitz (also listed as Jno. Hendrick Sides), a Palatine, age 26, arriving on the "Queene Elizabeth", 16 Sept 1738. A list of the passengers on this ship is on another page which also states that Johann Hendrich's father-in-law was a passenger on this ship. All of the ships were English and embarked from the Dutch port of Rotterdam and landed at Philadelphia harbor. Most of the passengers they carried were from the Palatinate section of Germany. Generally, only the names of the adult (over 16) male passengers were listed, so many of these men actually were accompanied by their families. They came under wretched conditions, more than a third of them becoming indentured servants to pay for their passage.

'German Settlements and the Lutheran Church in the Carolinas' (pub. in 1872) Had a traveler from Pennsylvania visited, about 40 or 50 years ago, portions of the present counties of Alamance, Guilford, Davidson, Rowan, Cabarrus, Stanley, Iredell, Catawba, and Lincoln in North Carolina, he might have believed himself to have unexpectedly come upon some part of the old Keystone State. His ear would have been greeted with sounds of the peculiar dialect known as 'Pennsylvania-Deutsch', a language made up of the dialect used in the ancient Palatinate, Wurtemberg and other countries bordering the Rhine, mixed with some English words, which plainly indicate that many of their forefathers were some of those Protestant refugees who fled from the persecutions of Louis XIV, king of France, and were brought to America by Queen Anne. Family names are to be met with in this section of North Carolina which are familiar in Montgomery, Berks, Lehigh, and Northampton counties, Pa., such as the Seitz also (Sides) family, etc.

We know that our branch of the Seitz family came to Tennessee from Catawba and Lincoln counties in North Carolina.

behind. The hard palate is formed by parts of the upper maxillary bones and the palatine bones. The hard palate is covered with a mucous membrane, the mucosa. Beneath this, in the submucosa, are numerous minute mucous glands, the secretion of which lubricate the throat.

The soft palate consists of a fold of muscular tissue covered with the same mucosa. It forms a partial partition between the rear of the mouth and the nasal part of the pharynx. When we swallow, the soft palate is raised and blocks the entrance to the back nasal passages. A conical projection called the uvula hangs from the middle of the soft palate. On each side of the uvula are two curved folds of membrane, the arches of the soft palate. See also HARELIP; MOUTH. A.B.H.

PALATINATE, pa LAT ih nayt, was the name of two little countries of the old German Empire. The two Palatinates were one political unit until 1620. One was called the Upper Palatinate, or Oberpfalz. The other was called the Lower, or Rhenish Palatinate, or Unterpfalz. Pfalz is German for Palatinate. The name Palatinate once referred to a castle of the German emperor.

Powerful princes of Germany, called the counts palatine, owned the Palatine and districts belonging to it as early as the 1000's. The Upper and Lower Palatinates were separated by the Peace of Westphalia in 1648. The Upper Palatinate, bounded chiefly by Bohemia and Bavaria, was given to Bavaria. The Lower Palatinate, on both sides of the Rhine, became a separate electorate. A further settlement was reached at the close of the Napoleonic Wars. Bavaria was given the largest part of the Palatinate. The rest was divided among Baden, Hesse-Darmstadt, and Prussia.

The Upper Palatinate is now part of Bavaria, joined with Regensburg into one province. It has an area of 3,725 square miles and a population of 629,300. The capital, Regensburg, has a population of 81,171. The Lower, or Rhenish, Palatinate has an area of 2,124 square miles and a population of 932,000. Speyer, the capital, has a population of 26,000.

The Palatinate has long been famous for its fertile soil. The region produces good crops of potatoes, tobacco, hemp, flax, wheat, rye, and barley. It has always been noted for its wine. T.Z.

PALAU, pah LOW. The Palau Islands are in the Western Pacific. They are part of that area known as Micronesia. The islands lie about 500 miles directly east of Davao, which is the chief city of the island of Mindanao in the southern Philippines. The Palau group is made up of a ragged chain of volcanic islands, and is surrounded by a coral reef. The group extends about ninety miles north to south, and about twenty miles east to west.

and have many trees. Many kinds of tropical fruits and vegetables are grown. The islands are famous for the interesting ruins of fortifications which ancient peoples built there.

The Palau Islands belonged to Germany before World War I. The Allies turned them over to Japan after the Treaty of Versailles. Under Japanese control the islands were heavily fortified. Automobile roads and concrete piers were built, canals were dug, modern harbors were developed, and Japanese settlers were brought into the islands. The Palau and all the Japanese-mandated islands were closed to foreigners in 1935.

The Southern Palau Islands were conquered by United States forces in 1944. At the end of World War II the Japanese settlers were sent back to Japan. E.E.EI.

PALEOGRAPHY, PAY lee AHG rah fih, is the study of ancient handwriting. By carefully examining the letter forms, punctuation, and abbreviation formerly used in each century and country, the paleographer learned to read the oldest manuscripts as easily as those written yesterday. He can also often tell where and when unsigned and undated documents were written, and thus detect those that are forgeries. Epigraphy, a special branch of paleography, is the study of the characters used on old documents, coins, and gravestones. P.B.U.

PALEONTOLOGIST, PAY lee ahn T AHL oh jist. See PALEONTOLOGY.

PALEONTOLOGY, PAY lee ahn T AHL oh jih, is the science that deals with the study of fossils. Fossil remains of plants and animals occur in layers of rocks. These lived at the time the rocks were made. By the study of these fossils, paleontologists can tell what sort of plants and animals lived during each period in the earth's history. These can then be classified. The paleontologist also uses fossils to trace the ancestry of living animals back through geologic time to their origin. Paleontology is very important to geology. The age of rocks can be determined by studying the fossils in them. It also aids in locating possible oil fields. There are three main branches of paleontology. Invertebrate paleontology deals chiefly with fossil shells and insects. Vertebrate paleontology is concerned with fossils of fishes, amphibians, reptiles, birds, and mammals. Paleobotany is the study of fossil plants. See also FOSSIL. P.O.M.G.

PALESTINE, PAL es tine. The country of Palestine is today a strange mixture of old and new civilizations. Modern Jewish cities have sprung up alongside ancient Arab villages. Both powerful tractors, and old-fashioned wooden plows cultivate the soil of Palestine. Up-to-date factories stand next to small crude workshops. Most of the modern contributions to the new Palestine have been made by Jews who began to settle in the country after World War I.

Palestine is sometimes called the Holy Land. It is sacred to three great religions, Judaism, Christianity, and Islam. For many hundreds of years, Christians fought Moslems for possession of Palestine. In recent years, much the same kind of fighting has taken place between Jews and Arabs.

The Land and Its Resources

Extent: Total area, 10,429 square miles; greatest length, about 150 miles; greatest width, 100 miles.

Physical Features: Chief mountain range, Mountains of Lebanon. Elevation, highest, Mt. Hermon, 9,056 feet above sea level; lowest, Dead Sea, 1,286 feet below sea level. Chief water areas: Jordan River, Yarmouk River, Dead Sea, Sea of Galilee.

Location, Size, and Surface Features. Palestine is a tiny country bordering the Mediterranean Sea between Egypt and Syria. It covers an area a little larger than that of the state of Vermont. For the boundaries of Palestine, see ASIA (colored map).

A long chain of barren hills runs north and south along the western banks of the Jordan River. From this backbone the land generally slopes toward the west. The plain of Esdraelon lies in the north, just below the Lebanon Mountains. The plain of Sharon stretches along the entire coastal region. In the south the Judean Hills slope gently westward toward the Mediterranean Sea.

Rivers, Lakes, and Seas. The most important body of water in Palestine is the Jordan River. It is fed by springs in the Lebanon Mountains. The Mediterranean Sea is to the west.

summer is very hot. The areas east of the Jordan are like those in the United States. The soil is changed man-made, especially with oak, cedar.

The most important natural resources are limestone, oil, and phosphate. Geologists have found deposits of potash east of Jerusalem. The modern irrigation system is widespread.

Conservation. Most of the forest has been cleared for the runoff of rain. Many trees have been dried up many years ago to help reclaim the land. The modern irrigation system is widespread.

The eastern German boundary of September 1938 is shown by a pink band. The area of present day Germany, as agreed upon at the Potsdam Conference, is shown in solid colors.

The William Jackson Sitz Home - White City, TN

Made in 1897 or 1898

In the yard - Aunt Jossie, Virgil Sitz (my daddy) in goat wagon
Uncle Frank Sitz standing beside Virgil; behind Virgil is Aunt Clara, Aunt Nora, William Jackson Sitz, Elizabeth
Ann Frances Dishroon Sitz; in front of her is Eddie Sitz; Albert is beside the mule. On the porch is Mattie (my grandmother). Aunt Katie Sitz Wiley is beside her.

Daddy was born in 1896; Uncle Rellie was born in 1898.
So this picture was made just before Uncle Rellie was born.

1904

Here we are with the entries for August 25th issue. Margaret Rose Meeks submitted the following: Bob Gibbs, Konova Parsons, Henry Church, Tom Rose, Johnny Rose, and Marvin Summers, with the steers belonging to Tom Rose.

Mrs. Cam-Meeks of Clouse Hill guessed they were Bill Sitz, Marion Levan, Dave Curtis, Henry Shrum, Lonnie McCullough, Virgil Sitz. The oxen belong to Albert Sitz and are named Tom and Jerry.

Sam London of Laager guessed Bill Sitz, D.W. McCullough, Lon McCullough, Henry Shrum, and two Shrum boys. Levator Cannon said it was Uncle Bill Sitz, himself, Henry Shrum and two Shrum boys.

L. E. Dishroon said the steers were named Buck & Dick, owned by Eddie Sitz and Albert Sitz, with Bill Sitz, Marion Levan, Dave Curtis standing and Henry Shrum driving, with Lonnie Levan and Virgil Sitz in the cart.

Mr. Dishroon's guess was correct according to the person who brought the picture in. So we give him the honors and also we are going to send the Herald to our good friend Uncle Levator Cannon for being the first guesser.

Concerning Aunt Jossie Sitz who reared her cousin, Emiel Cannon.

Emiel Cannon, a nephew of Elizabeth Ann Dishroon Sitz, was reared in this household after his mother, Merrilda J. Dishroon Cannon's death 18 Feb. 1899. Emiel's father was T. Levator Cannon. Emiel was born Dec. 1898. He married Nancy Holland, d/o W.M. and Sally Holland.

Aunt Josie, Emiel and Nancy, and her parents moved from Tracy City, Tn to Jellico, TN, a coal mining area. Nancy was taken to Knoxville hospital for the birth of her first child. While she was in the hospital Aunt Josie died and was buried in Jellico. A day or two later Nancy died after childbirth. The baby was kept in the hospital until Nancy's body was taken back to Orange Hill Cemetery, Tracy City, TN for burial.

Some time later Emiel was killed in a mining accident in KY.(perhaps Greasy Creek, KY) His body was also brought back to Orange Hill.

Above information from Mrs. Sara Cannon Nunley and Bertha Gayheart (Hueysville, KY)

Children of Levator Cannon and his first wife, Merrilda Dishroon, were: Ellis, Herbert, Freddie, and Emiel.

Children by his second wife, Ella Scruggs were: Murriel, Francis(male) Sarah, Ross, and Ophelia Cannon (Haynes).

Excerpts Taken From Sitz Family History

On the twenty third Day of December 1852 William B<sup>est</sup> Sitz "Signed, Sealed and Delivered for the Sum in Hand of Eighty Dollars" a deed to a 196 and 1/2 acre farm to John Myers. Both John Myers and William B. Sitz were the 2nd Great Grandfathers of Berniece K. Sitz.

On the 24th of December 1855 William B. Sitz for reasons unknown (maybe a Christmas present or he could have been sick and though<sup>h</sup> he was dying) willed all of his property, livestock and household goods (including his feather bed and clock) to his wife Ellender B. Sitz. He outlived Ellender by six years, dying in 1872. Both are buried at Fall Creek Cemetery near Gruetli, Grundy County Tennessee.

William Holmes, the 2nd Great Grandfather of Berniece K. Sitz, was the first Magistrate (judge) of Coffee County Tennessee. He married Mary Rains. They had eleven children.

William B. Sitz and <sup>Nella</sup> Ellender B. <sup>Ritchey</sup> Sitz deeded a farm to each of three of their children with the stipulation in the will that "each were to supply them with one third of their livelyhood in a suitable manner for their conditions for their life times". If they refused to contribute their 1/3 share the deed was to become "Null and void". Two of the children were George W. Sitz and William J. Sitz. The third is unknown.

Myles Benson Myers married Mary Carolyn Davis. She was called Mollie. They had fourteen children. He was the Grandfather of Berniece K. Sitz.

William B. Sitz and his wife Ellender B. Seitz sold on November 5, 1860 a part of their farm on Seitz Mountain on the headwaters of Fall Creek and Collins River near what is now Gruetli Tennessee in Grundy County. The buyer was <sup>I</sup>Ervin Disharoon. He was an ancestor of John Timothy Crenshaw Disharoon. J.T.C. Disharoon married Cornelia Ran Sitz, the daughter of William B. Sitz.

William B. Seitz actively served on a jury of venue many times to lay out new roads in Dist.#5 in the newly formed County Of Grundy in 1844. One of the first roads layed out started from the road in front of his house and near the corner of his house and ran back through his property, thereby opening it for settlement.(He knew what was good for him)

W.B. Sitz, Jacob Stokes et (and others)

This day this cause came on to be heard before the Hon. J. J. Williams, Judge. He holding the Chancery Court at Altamont Tennessee by interchange with the Hon. John W. Burton, Chancellor, upon an original bill, Styles J.T. Disharoon against W.B. Sitz et al which was filed on the 6th of Sept. 1869 in this court and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court from the records in paid cause and the record in this cause, that the lands described in said bills was on the 18th of Nov. 1871 in pursuance to a decree pronounced on the ___ day of Sept. 1870, a special term of this court in the said cause of J.T.C. Disharoon vs W.B. Seitz et al sold to J.W. Layne upon a credit of 12 and 18 months and it further appearing to the satisfaction of the court that J.W. Layne transferred his bid to G.W. Seitz regularly and by paper writing according to the law (the complainant in this cause) of the whole lands purchased by the said Layne, which transfer took place before the purchase money was made and it further appearing to the Court that G.W. Seitz paid all but one hundred dollars on said land and to satisfy said balance of $100.00 G.W. Seitz sold and deeded to Jacob Stokes 130 acres of said land and it was agreed by the said Seitz and Stokes that Stokes should pay the balance of the original purchase money namely $100.00 into the Clerk and Masters office, which was accordingly done. and at the October Term of this Court a decree was entered which through a mistake or oversight purported to convey the entire purchase of said Layne to said Stokes.

Now upon the application of said Seitz it is ordered adjudged and decreed by the Court that said decree be modified and corrected so as to read as follows - to wit that all of the right title interest and claim of Jacob Stokes, and the heirs at law of W.B. Seitz, Sr. and Elender Seitz - Jazeal Tate, Fanny Tate, Silas Lankford, Polly Lankford, G.W. Layne, Elizabeth Layne, W.P. Lowe, Faithy Lowe, J. Vandergriff, Sarah Vandergriff, Anderson Coggins and Nancy Coggins - Cosby Seitz, Mary Seitz, William Seitz, Jr. Cornelia Disharoon and unknown heirs of Elender Seitz decd. to all of the lands sold and described in the leadings and transferred to John Northcut as trustee to the said Elender Seitz, now decd by W.B. Seitz on the ___ day of ___ 18___, as shown in Book C of the Registers office of Grundy County Tennessee, except 130 acres of said land sold and transferred to the said Stokes by deed of date the 29th of June 1874 so shown by said deed from the said G.W. Seitz to Jacob Stokes. Be divested out of them, and vested in the purchaser G.W. Seitz, and the Master will make him a deed to the same upon his application and at his expense. and that complainant G.W. Seitz and the Complaintee Jacob Stokes each pay one half the cost of this cause for which executions will issue and that J.K. Pearson be allowed to assert his lien on said land for a reasonable compensation for his services as an attorney for complainant.

This is proof there was some fueding , too.

Five thousand acres of land by virtue of a Entry bearing the date of the 22 of September 1836 No. 4286 Situated in the said County on the waters of Collins river and little Sequatche. Beg. on a White Oak the South east corner of said Sitze two hundred acre tract he now lives on, running South nine hundred poles to a Sugar tree on the East side of Clifty creek. Then West nine hundred and fifty poles to a Poplar having crossed little Sequatche creek then North ninehundred poles to a stake and Oak Pointers thence East nine hundred and fifty poles to the beginning including and plating out 343 acres of prior claims belonging to Henry Spong? and Wilson

Jas. Tate & John Dykes CC. F. Hill D.

William B. Sitz and his wife Ellender B. Seitz sold on November 5, 1860 a part of their farm on Seitz Mountain on the headwaters of Fall Creek and Collins River near what is now Gruetli Tennessee in Grundy County. The buyer was <sup>I</sup>Ervin Disharoon. He was an ancestor of John Timothy Crenshaw Disharoon. J.T.C. Disharoon married Cornelia Ran Sitz, the daughter of William B. Sitz.

William B. Seitz actively served on a jury of venue many times to lay out new roads in Dist.#5 in the newly formed County Of Grundy in 1844. One of the first roads layed out started from the road in front of his house and near the corner of his house and ran back through his property, thereby opening it for settlement.(He knew what was good for him)

Sitz Family Among Early Settlers Here

1974-?

From Winford F. Sitz

DeKalb Co. Ala.

One of the early families of the Lookout Mountain area of this county is the Sitz Family. In early records the name is sometimes spelled Seitz and Sides. In talking with the older people even today they still pronounce the name Sides.

The first record of the family in America is found in the immigration list to Pennsylvania in the Dutch settlements. According to members of the family they were Black Dutch or Germans. Later the family migrated to Lincoln County, N. C., where today many people of this name still reside.

It was from Lincoln County that Andrew and Mary Sitz moved to Grundy County, Tenn., and in the 1830's to Alabama and settled on Lookout Mountain. They are the progenitors of this large family with hundreds of descendants in the area and others scattered all over the United States.

The family has been prominent in church and civic affairs and several members of this family have held public office in the county.

Andrew Sitz was born about 1772 and Mary, his wife, about 1775. There were nine children listed in his will which was filed in DeKalb County in 1851.

The eldest son, John, was born in 1807 in Lincoln County, N. C., and married in Grundy County, Tenn., Miss Cella Dykes, daughter of Isham and Prudence Chote Dykes. To them were born twelve children: James; Isham H., who married Sarah Burnett; Eleanor (Nellie) who married Thomas Morgan; Andrew Jackson, who married Eliza Burnett; William R., who married William Rore; Jeremiah, who married Eliza J. Barnes; John Hampton (Boyd) who married Celia Ross; Miranda Elizabeth, who married Edmond S. Cash; Prudence Louise, who married Francis Marion Sauls; Ashberry Francis (Bud), who married Josephine M. Richards; and Permisa Nancy Ann, who married Edward Simpson Ashley.

The other children of Andrew and Mary Sitz were Andrew Jack; Jonathan, who married Nancy Wilson; William Isaac, who married Sarah Ellis; Mary (Polly), who married Jacob Rink; Milly, who married Laban Ellis; Sarah, who married Vachel Lankford; Elizabeth, who married Humphrey McBrayer; Mary Ann married John Ellis.

Most of these people and many other members of the families are buried in Fairview Cemetery on Lookout Mountain and in Bethany Cemetery in Reece City. The early records of these churches list this family among their first members.

Isn't it odd how facts get misconstrued when families don't stay together? The Andrew Seitz in this article is my great, great, great grandfather. He is the father of William Bost Seitz buried at Fall Creek cemetery. William Bost Seitz is the only one of Andrew's children who remained in Grundy Co. In this article he is not mentioned as a child, but we know from Andrew's Will that he was. He was the only one not living in DeKalb Co. Alabama at the time the Will was probated. By the way-DeKalb Co. Fort Payne, Ala. is the current home of popular ALABAMA singing group.

From Vol. 2 Rowan Co. Minutes April 14, 1763 Andrew Sides, Jr.

July 18, 1767 Bill of sales from Thomas Grist to Andrew Sides for improvement on second Creek joining Samuel Shin's plantation. Also one dark bay horse, one black mare, two cows and calves. Feather beds-one weighing 45 pounds and one 35 pounds, and their furniture, one iron pot, one copper kettle, one spinning wheel, one pewter dish and 2----- plates, one broad axe and one narrow axe. Proved by George Henry Barringer.

He bought all this about 6 months after Feltsinger's Will was probated. He "heirs" 40 pounds--a lot of money. He was the God-son thus favored North Carolina Wills Lincoln Co. N.C. Published in North Carolina Magazine Quarterly Mar. 1956 issue, page 141 Will of William Bost dated 29 Apr. 1811 names daughter, Magdalena Seits, as daughter . Wife of Andrew Seits.

The following FG sheet is incomplete. No one has determined where our Andrew fits in. We are still searching. History of the Stewarts Phillips and Sides may help some.

Anthony Aylor, father of Martha Lawrence Aylor, was born 24 Sept. 1792 and died 28 Sept. 1882 in Grundy Co., TN

1993

In 1850 Census of Grundy Co. TN Anthony A Bradshaw was a Sgt. with Co. G. 34th Inf. He lost an arm in the Battle of Murfreesboro. He served as postmaster at Monteagle, TN in 1893. He died at Hill City (North Chattanooga) TN and was buried At Monteagle. I have not been able to locate His grave. There is an unmarked grave beside his sister, Margaret Jane Smith (my great grandmother), which I believe is his. ESM

Grandfathers on the Bradshaw are:

Joseph Bradshaw b. 1804 d. 1877

Samuel Bradshaw wife: Dorcus Prigmore Bradshaw

John Bradshaw b/ 18 Dec. 1734 d. 25 Dec. 1818 Served in Rev. War in VA.

Oliver Cromwell Bradshaw

Robert Bradshaw of England had a brother who served as Chief Justice

The "Grandfather" information came from Uncle Joe Smith's daughter who lives in Milford, Ohio. She gave the info to Freda Brown 1993.

Grandpa Stephen Smith came from St. Louis, Mo. to Grundy Co. He and Margaret Jane Bradshaw were married when she was 24 years old. 1870 They and their two oldest children, Henry and Grandma Martha Lawrence moved in a covered wagon to Texas. Their third child, Joe, was born there.

1994

I recieved from an aunt a copy of the obituary of my great grandmother, Margaret Jane Bradshaw Smith. She was buried beside her brother, Anthony A. Bradshaw. So now I know where Anthony was buried.

From Births, Deaths and Marriages Extracted from the Sequatchie Valley News 1891-1910

Monteagle 1908

Mrs. Steve Smith was called to the bedside of her brother, Anthony A. Bradshaw. at Hill City, the 13th. Mr. Bradshaw died Friday and was brought here for burial last Sunday. A large crowd of old Confederate veterans and relatives and friends attended the funeral. He was a member of the M. E. Church since boyhood, entered the Confederate army in '61, fought valiantly for the cause of the South, and lost an arm in the battle of Murfreesboro. After the war he returned to Grundy County, where he was born and raised and has since filled some of our county offices with honor. Four <sup>1924</sup> years ago he moved to Hill City, where he died. His brothers and sisters, relatives and many friends have our heartfelt sympathy.

Jesse Arthur Smith was an engineer with the New Orleans Special. He brought his train to the terminal in Danville, KY before succumbing to a heart attack. He had not complained of illness during the 150-mile trip from Somerset KY. Apparently he suffered a heart attack immediately after bringing the train into the station. He had been with the railroad for 30 years. He lived in Danville.

Info from news paper clipping

Stephen and Margaret Jane Smith moved by covered wagon to Texas. With them were their first two children, Henry and Martha Lawrence-my grandmother. Their third child, Joseph was born in Texas. They later moved back to TN.

1853 Report of A.M. Blair;s estate's income by R.C. Caldwell.
Admr. Thomas Blair bought part of the crops. Sale took place
Nov. 12, 1852.

What is the connection between the Bradshaws, Caldwells and Blairs. The Blairs are buried beside my great great grandmother (maternal) Hannah Turner in the Caldwell Cemetery at Providence in Pelham Valley. Joseph Bradshaw was buried in the same cemetery in 1877. His wife, Martha Lawrence Aylor Bradshaw died in Birmingham, Ala and I assume she was buried there. She is not buried beside her husband. After his death she probably lived with one of the children in Birmingham.

MRS. MARGARET JANE SMITH

Mrs. Margaret Jane Smith was born near Providence, Tennessee in Pelham Valley, on Sept. 11, 1846. She passed away on Sept. 27, 1938. Grundy County had been her home for the greater part of her life. Most of her children were reared at Summerfield. She led a very active life and was widely known in this section. She remembered many interesting events connected with the Civil War and became accustomed to marching soldiers as they passed her door enroute across the mountain. Grundy County had been organized as a county only two years when she was born, and her father, Rev. Joseph Bradshaw, was appointed by the court to assist in making surveys of the county for roads and definite bountry lines.

At the age of 24 she married Stephen Jasper Smith of St. Louis. They made their home in Providence, in Pelham Valley. To this union were born: J.H. Smith of Houston, Texas; Mrs. Albert Sitz, of Drakesboro, Ky. J.B. Smith of Houston, Texas; J.E. Smith of Newport, Ky.; Mrs. W.M. Sanders of Tracy City, Tenn.; J.A. Smith of Danville, KY.; and Mrs. Edd Hunt of Covington, Ky. In addition to the above named children, she is survived by 38 grandchildren, 44 great-grandchildren and 3 great-great-grandchildren.

She was buried in the Monteagle cemetery by the side of her brother, Anthony Bradshaw.

Crandel has supported me in all the researching I have done. He has gone with me to many cemeteries-even as far away as Gadsden, Ala-and has always, with the aid of a little shaving cream and a straight edge, been able to cipher the birth and death dates on the tombstones. We have a few more names we plan to find. May God be good to us and permit us to pursue our undertaking.

Love,

Ethleen Sitz McNabb (1994)
