Impossible? - No!!

I saw it in Switzerland. Three different kinds of people - speaking three different languages - springing from three different backgrounds - people, who, all through history, have been blood-enemies - and, yet, here, they live side by side, in peace.

For, in this one tiny spot on Earth, they have learned what a Great Teacher tried to teach all of us. That, no matter what our differences are, each of us is the other's brother, for all of us are children of the same Father.

Dear Knoxie -

Thanks for reminding me about that marriage certificate. Hope you can get someone to translate. A relative of one of my neighbors might be able to but she hasn't visited in a while.

It is John Anderegg and Elizabeth Abplanalp. Her parents are buried near Gruetli. Ask Mose Birdwell and see if dates are on tombstone. Also cemetery records might give parents names and exact birthplaces.

Have you heard if there's an Anderegg Reunion and when.

Some news -- Fred Anderegg and Elsie moved from Birmingham to Sunnyside, Florida. Hazel McBride Stewart moved from Sunnyside, Florida, to Nashville, Tennessee. My Uncle Phillip Anderegg and wife, Florence, of Nevada visited sons in Virginia and sister, Inez in Johnson City, also visited my mother in March.

My mother is visiting her sisters in Snellville, Georgia this week -- call her at 972-5714. Her name is Myrtle Anderegg. Also my sister Jean moved to Des Moines, Iowa, but is visiting friends in Atlanta this week.

Another thing, Albert Anderegg, Jr.'s first wife and daughter supposedly live in Atlanta and have a craft shop. He married three times. Maybe you can check on that too.

Take care.
Jane

(My neighbor was able to translate the printed portion of the certificate but it is the written script which is significant)--

John Anderegg Sr., Murdered Mar. 17, 1914

We failed to record in our last weeks issue about the death of Mr. John Anderegg, who was murdered in Pratt City, Ala. A representative of The Herald secured the following particulars from his son, John Anderegg.

Mr. Anderegg was employed as night foreman at the pump station for the Tennessee Coal & Iron Co., and while at his duties supposedly about two o'clock in the morning, the murderer slipped up to his back and struck him in the back of the head with what is known as a track-walkers wrench. He was robbed of a ladies gold watch, a pistol and a small sum of money having deposited his money a few days before in the bank. While changing a $20.00 bill he was seen by a very bad man of that place and is supposed he is the murderer as he has since disappeared. Six detectives are working on the case and arrest is expected shortly. Frank Phillips, who is well known at this place is one of the detectives working on the case. After being murdered, Mr. Anderegg was locked up in the pumping station by the murderer, and on account of the pump stopping at 2 a.m. A man then went and found him. He lived till the next day but never regained consciousness. He is survived by wife and the following children who are grown Mrs. Kate Stoker, Mrs. Lizzie McBride, John, Henry, Frank and Albert Anderegg. He was a member of the Royal Arcanum Lodge.

LI'L ABNER

BY AL CAPP

Impossible? - No!!

I saw it in Switzerland. Three different kinds of people - speaking three different languages - springing from three different backgrounds - people who, all through history, have been blood-enemies - and, yet, here, they live side by side, in peace.

For, in this one tiny spot on Earth, they have learned what a Great Teacher tried to teach all of us. That, no matter what our differences are, each of us is the other's brother, for all of us are children of the same Father.

Al Capp
