Leaves from the Family Tree

The Tate family of East Tennessee descended from David Tate who migrated from England at an early date and settled in Botetourt County, Virginia.

"Great Granddaughter of Grainger County" by Penelope Johnson Allen, State Chairman of Genealogical Record's Tennessee Society, gives anecdotes of activities of ancestors in the Revolutionary War.

The name Tate is baptismal in origin, meaning "Son of Tate." One Nicholas Tate appears in the records of Cambridge County, England, as early as the year 1272, Sir Robert Tate was Lord Mayor of London in 1488 and his brother John Tate of De La Pre Abbey was a member of the British Parliament of Corp Castle in 1592 and from this family have sprung many distinguished sons among the most notable of the name was Sir Henry Tate, trustee of the National Gallery. He presented to the British nation the famous Tate Collection and picture gallery. The Tate Family of East Tennessee descends from David Tate who came to Virginia at an early date and settled in Botetourt County and has given an interesting account of this branch of the Tates. In a memoir written in 1889 by Mrs. Comfort (Noe) Rich, of Grainger County, Tennessee whose mother was Margaret Tate. This history is now printed through the courtesy of Mrs. Eugene Eckel of Morristown, Tennessee. The following statement was made by Comfort Rich formerly Comfort Noe. In regard to this branch of the Tate Family in America, I am nearly eighty years old and was born Jan. 7 1810. I have always taken a keen interest in the history of my ancestors and remember very distinctly much of their history as it was told to me by my mother, Margaret Noe, My uncles and also my grandfather, David Tate, whom I remember very well. My great-grandfather's name was David Tate. He had a brother Elijah Tate who I have been told died in Ireland and left a large estate worth several million dollars, but I do not know much of him.

My Great-grandfather, David Tate, came to America as a Lieutenant in the King's Service, after the establishment of the Colonies. His term of service expired while he was in America and he never returned to England.

My Great-grandmother was an Irish girl named Catherine Thornton, her family belonged to the nobility of Ireland. She ran away from home and came to America as did many others at the same time impelled by a spirit of adventure and settled in Virginia.

Hand written on the bottom of this document "Ben Easley Wilson Harris first married Mildie Tate divorced her and married Nina Bouldin" which may contradict the William Martin Harris genealogy.

John G.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Tate of Henryetta, Oklahoma, celebrated their 71st anniversary on June 30, 1953. The couple was married in Tracy City on June 30, 1881.

Mr. Tate was then 22 years of age and Mrs. Tate was 17. She was the former Miss Hattie S. Tate. The couple were cousins but had never met until prior to their marriage. Following the wedding they moved to Thurber, Texas, where Mr. Tate worked in the coal mines. He was also an ordained Methodist minister and worked in the mines as well as preached.

After their stay in Texas they moved back to Tracy City where they resided until 1909 when they moved back to Oklahoma. Mr. and Mrs. Tate with their children moved to Henryetta in 1910 where he worked in the Victory Coal mines and preached until his retirement in 1932. Their address now is 1309 W. Moore St., Henryetta, Okla.

They were the parents of 12 children, seven of whom are still living. They are: Albert Tate, Kimberly, Idaho; Ernest Tate, Gooding, Idaho; Charles Tate, Henryetta; Mrs. Nettie Sims, Henryetta; Mrs. Belt Daniels, Henryetta; and Mrs. R. J. Delano of Washington, D.C. They have 34 grandchildren, 23 great-grandchildren.

They spent their anniversary quietly in their home with all their children.

Mr. W. M. Tate of Beersheba is the only living brother of Mr. Tate.

In his youth Mr. John A. Tate met Jesse James of the notorious James brothers and visited in his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Tate will probably be remembered by some of Tracy City's oldest residents.
