Some sources say that Walton's middle name was "William" rather than "Brixey". I believe "Brixey" to be the correct middle name per his gravestone.

Gina Warren Hendrixson copied the information out of the Warren Family Bible that her father, Eugene Warren, has in his possession. The following is how the information is entered:

There is a notation "Baptized into Church of Christ in October 1935", but who was baptized wasn't written down.

There is also the date "November 1927" with no notes as to what that means.

The following information was written on a piece of paper and placed in the Warren Family Bible. Who wrote it is unknown at this time and it is written in pencil. It is hard to read due to age and has faded with time. It reads as if someone had copied an obituary of Walton Brixey Warren from a newspaper or perhaps a church newsletter/bulletin.

"Walton Brixey Warren was born August 15, 1874. Departed this life June 30, 1951. Age 76 years, 10 months, 15 days. Notes for Carmen Waldine Anthony: Per conversation with Carmen Warren in 2000, she told me that all her children, except Catherine, were born at the Manchester Mill, which was owned by her husband, Hubert. Catherine was born in Asbury in Carmen's mother's house. When I asked her about how long she had known Hubert, she told me that she had known him since they were children. When asked when she knew she was going to marry him, she replied, "When I was 8 years old". I asked her when Hubert knew he was going to marry her, she said, "Oh, that was quite some time later!".

They were married at her mother's house when Carmen was 16 years old, with Hubert and the preacher riding out to Asbury in a horse and buggy. After the ceremony, she said that they went across the field and played baseball. Later, in another interview, Carmen said that they went to watch a basketball game that night.

Carmen only went to the 8th grade in schooling, very common in those days for girls. She told Lorie Erdhart, her granddaughter-in-law, in an interview that she would walk the mile to the Asbury school everyday with a boy that lived about a mile and a half down the road from her. Every morning, he would walk to her house and they would both walk the last mile to school. She said that the school had two rooms, one for grades 1-4 and the second one for grades 5-8.

Her chores were to gather the eggs from the hen house and to bring in water from the well.

When Hubert bought the Manchester Mill, he took the warehouse of the Mill and converted it into living space for the family. He added walls to make three bedrooms and a kitchen. The children were in one room, Hubert and Carmen in another, and Hubert's father and stepmother in the third bedroom. Walton Brixey Warren and his second wife, Thursie Southerland Warren lived with them until their deaths. After Walton and Thursie died, Mr. Wade (Bryan), a family friend and son of the owner of the house that Hubert and Carmen bought on Waite Street in Manchester, asked if he could board with them. He asked Carmen first, and she said that she would ask Hubert and that if she was going to have a boarder, she would have nobody but him as a boarder. When Hubert got home for lunch that day, Carmen asked him if he wanted a boarder. He said "no" immediately, and then asked her who wanted to board with them. When Carmen told him who it was, Hubert told her it was up to her. Mr. Wade moved in and lived with them until he died 11 years later. I have a photograph of Mike with Mr. Wade sitting on the front porch swing when Mike was only about 2 years old. Mr. Wade died shortly after that. He had told Carmen and Hubert that he wanted to live with them until "my toes turn up". He got his wish.
